GRAND FALLS PLANS IRRIGATION SYSTEM

AN effort to prevent irrigation districts higher up the Texas river from depriving them entirely of water, the people of Grand Falls, Ward county, Texas, are preparing to dam the river near their city and create other reservoirs that will provide water for an irrigation district of their own of about 42,000 acres in a valley 12 miles long and two to five miles wide. In addition to this irrigation dam, it is proposed to build four additional water dams. These are: Red Bluff, with a capacity of 500,000-acre feet; Soda Lake, with a capacity of 10,000-acre feet; and another body of smaller proportions.

To finance the entire project, Ward county improvement district No. 2 has issued $250,000 in bonds, secured by about $4,000,000 worth of property, the average highest valuation of the property being $150 an acre. Much of the property is owned by El Pasoans. This amount, according to Norman E. Vasey, auditor of the district, who has just completed an audit of the improvement district's books, is adequate to take care of all irrigation needs.

Two Plants Purchased.

Of the $250,000 in bonds $200,000 worth have already been sold and with the money two plants have been purchased. These are the Grand Falls irrigation dam and the Big Valley dam system. Mr. Vasey says. The amount paid for the former system was $18,000 and the amount for the latter was $180,000. The balance of the $250,000 was spent for additions to the dam.

DENVER WOMAN IS INDICTED IN DENTON CASE

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 28.—The estate left by Jacob C. Denton, for whose murder Mrs. Louise Peste, of Denver, was indicted yesterday, in a case valued at $125,000, according to a petition for letters of administration filed today in the county clerk's office.

The petitioner is Judge Russ Avery, named as administrator in Denton's will. Frances Denton, 36 years old, daughter of the deceased, is the only heir named in the will.

While operating in the district attorney's office were combing the county grand jury, she was at a local theater, where she had learned plumber, who is alleged to have walked up the crypt in which Den-ton's body was found, was appearing of his alleged work as a plumber at the Denton home and answering questions from the audience.

Mrs. Peste's daughter, Betty, four years old, is not to be informed of the arrest of her mother, it was announced last night. Mrs. Peste asked this favor and the officers granted it.

REVIVAL WILL ATTENDED.

Rev. R. W. Tesser, pastor of the

Highland Park Baptist church, who is conducting a revival at his church, said yesterday that the services were being well attended. Services are held at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

GROWERS TO SELL WOOL IN MID-WEST

A ONE of the battles in the war that started some time ago between the wool growers of America and the manufacturers of woolen products, 35,000,000 pounds of wool sold to be in pools in the middle west and in Texas are to be marketed cooperatively through the American Farm Bureau federation, according to information received at the county farm bureau office here.

The wool the report says, was pooled last spring by the growers in the territory and taken over by the state federations when the wool commission houses refused to send buyers to various wool sales arranged in counties and sections where the wool was pooled. By holding and marketing the wool cooperatively in the future it hoped to give the growers control of the market instead of the manufacturers. To do this the marketing agencies will hold the raw wool in storage, instead of letting the manufacturers hold the wool or the cloth against better prices.

The wool growers are planning to fight the manufacturers in another way, or at least to control them, by working through the American Farm Bureau federation, which has a plan to take the wool through congress.

The desire of the manufacturer, the statement received here says, is to force the manufacturer to brand his product just what it really is.

MINES, STORM, STRIKE, FIRE TROUBLE SHIP

New York, Oct. 28.—Hardships at sea that made the trip of the "Ancient Mariner" seem comparatively comfortable, were met by the skipper of the Italian steamer Presidenta Wilson and his passengers who arrived yesterday from Trieste and Naples.

Soon after leaving Trieste a wireless warning that a field of floating mines had broken loose caused a wide deviation, then fire broke out in the forward room as Naples was reached. In the harbor labor agitators harangued the crew to go on strike, and at sea just day two dozen stowaways were discovered, as the ship put back to Naples to desert them. One attempted suicide by jumping overboard and was arrested.

After leaving land again the ship came upon seven Moore exhausted in a small boat. They said a severe storm had torn away their sails. A severe storm, amounting almost to a typhoon, which lashed him waves over the entire liner, was encountered off Gibraltar. For six days she pushed against the head winds.
